

All players of Endless Adventures Games agree willingly to participate in the activities sponsored by the organization known as Endless Adventures Ontario Inc (EAO). EAO has rules that govern the activities. These rules include, but are not limited to: the specific game-system rulebook, all EAO and game-specific policies, all game manuals, any site-specific or time-specific rules, all supplemental rules published by EAO, and the instructions of EAO and game-specific staff.

EAO makes no representation or claims as to the condition or safety of the land, structures or surroundings, whether owned or not owned, leased or rented, operated or maintained by EAO.

I understand that all activities sponsored by EAO are voluntary and that I do not have to participate unless I choose to do so. I understand that these activities are potentially dangerous or harmful to my person and/or property. EAO does not provide any insurance coverage for my person or property. I acknowledge that I am responsible for my own safety, health care needs, and the protection of my property.

In exchange for allowing me to participate in the events sponsored by EAO and any related activities, I agree that I am responsible for any and all actions and any and all ramifications of those actions that I undertake during participation in said events or activities. I also agree to release from liability, agree to indemnify, and agree to hold harmless, EAO and any EAO Shareholder, Director, officer or employee, EAO council member, agent, volunteer, or game-specific employee acting within the scope of their duties and/or responsibilities, for any injury, indiscretion or offence, be it physical, emotional, and/or psychological, to my person or for damage to my property. This release shall be binding upon myself, successors in interest and/or any person(s) suing on my behalf.

I have read the statements in this document and agree to its terms and have voluntarily agreed to it. I understand that this document is complete unto itself and that any oral promises or representations made to me concerning this document and/or its terms are not binding upon EAO, its executive council, shareholders, officers, agents, board of directors, or employees.

I understand that in no way is EAO to be held liable for any actions I may perform during my participation in EAO events. I acknowledge that I have been made aware that:

- Drugs and illegal substances are forbidden on site during any EAO event. Anyone violating this rule will be removed from site.
- No one is to grab, hold, strike or in any way physically harm another participant.

- Climbing of buildings, trees or other objects is not allowed. Nor may anyone crawl under any building, bridge, or structure.
- During Combat no one is to swing or hit another participant's head, neck or face area or hands.
- If at any time a participant calls "Zebra", all within earshot are to immediately stop what they are doing. A "Zebra" call may be used if someone is injured, lost, or about to encounter an unsafe situation whether intentionally or not.
- Any and all weapons used during an EAO event are to be of the boffer or foam latex variety, and must be inspected at the beginning of each event and approved by a Weapon Marshal for safety. Any weapon not inspected and approved is considered unsafe and is unusable.

- Fires are to be lit in designated, and approved fire pits only, and at no time may be left unattended.
- Townsfolk are people who are at the event for atmosphere and practical services only. Townsfolk are often merchants (of real wares not in-game items), tavern staff, performers, and other general townsfolk. These players are not active in the game and do not carry weapons or packets. At no time may these players participate in in-game or physical combat.

- Whenever you come across another player who is unarmed you are to treat them as Non-Combat characters. (See the game specific rulebook for rules on interacting with Non-Combat Characters.) EAO appreciates the presence of these individuals and encourages them to come and participate.
- All players are expected to behave in compliance with the Ontario Human Rights Code. Infractions won't be tolerated.
- EAO occasionally uses plot and story elements that may contain mature subject matter. All participants should be aware of this fact, and EAO takes no responsibility for any material that may be considered offensive.

- All alchemical and herbal creations used in EAO games are completely fictional, while some components may share names with actual substances; any and all formula and recipes are fictional. Never attempt to actually create these substances, as they will very likely be harmful.
- By participating in this game, I acknowledge that...
  - I am aware of the above safety rules, and agree to follow all such rules. I understand that if I am found violating any of these rules I will be punished as deemed appropriate by EAO officials. Should my actions result in a ban from playing EAO games, I forfeit any and all pre-paid fees, as well as any rights and privileges awarded me as a player of EAO games. EAO is not liable or responsible for any injuries, illnesses, or damage/loss of property I may sustain or that I may cause.
  - I have fully read and understand the Health and Care of Player Policy and agree to abide by it at all EAO events.
